3 Seville - Full Day Tour with Lunch / Optional Tour May 12th, 2022

Seville has a rich Moorish heritage and used to be a prosperous port that carried out trade with the Americas. The streets and squares in the historic quarter are lively and busy.

After breakfast at your hotel, we invite you for a Full Day Panoramic Tour of Seville with strategic stops along the way, such as Plaza de España, Torre del Oro, Bullring Maestranza, Opera house and Triana Bridge. The second half of the tour will be on foot, passing by the Indies Archive, the Cathedral and the Alcazar. At the feet of this monuments lies Santa Cruz Jewish quarter, where anyone can easily get lost within its maze of narrow streets and charming picturesque squares, where History and beauty perfectly blend in the most monumental and oldest quarter of Sevilla.

You will be notified by WSB on which date you will take this Half Day Tour. (This will depend on when your CEO will be designated to take the tour).

For those passengers not taking the included tour, you may choose from one of the many Optional Tours being offered to you such as an excursion to the town of Córdoba for a discovery of The Great Cathedral-Mosque, or opt to explore the village of Jerez -- known for its prancing horses and sherry wine. Tonight, you can find yourself exclaiming "delicioso" for delectable dishes at your choice of local restaurant or tapas bar (on own).

Included Meals: Breakfast and Lunch
